

Albert J. Jupina

November 27, 1939 - February 13, 2023

Albert John Jupina, 83, of Greensboro, Pa., died Monday, February 13, 2023, in the Washington Hospital. He had been a resident of Rolling Meadows Nursing Home for the past eight years. Born in Palmer, Pa. (Fayette County) on November 27, 1939, he was a son of the late Stephen J. and Mary Ann (Pope) Jupina. Also deceased are his grandparents, Anna (Setie) and John Pope and Mary (Dyava) and John Jupina, and a sister, Annette Marie Jupina.

A 1957 graduate of the former All Saints High School in Masontown, he had been employed over the years as an electronics mechanic. Albert enjoyed listening to polkas, going to dances, and the old time rock and roll.

Surviving are his two sisters, Mary J. Eades and husband Ronald, of Louisville, Kentucky, and Stephanie Jupina, of Greensboro, Pa. Also surviving is an aunt, Margaret Space of Erie, Pa.; one niece, Carolyn Shuler and husband Tim of Kentucky; three nephews and their wives, Christopher and Sindy Diaz and Michael and Stephanie Diaz, all of Florida and Ronald Diaz of Kentucky; great nieces, Isabel and Ava Diaz of Greensburg, Pa. Hanna and Abby Diaz and a great-nephew, Cole Diaz, all of Florida; and 15 cousins.

Friends are invited to join with his family for Graveside Services on Monday, February 20, 2023 at 11:00 AM in the Laurel Point Cemetery, N. Market Street in Carmichaels, with Fr. Vasyl Symyon officiating. Arrangements are in the care of the Richard R. Herod Funeral Home, Point Marion.
