

Alma H. Jackson

March 19, 1946 - November 18, 2021

Alma H. Jackson, 75, of Dilliner, Pa., passed away unexpectedly Thursday, November 18, 2021, at her home. Born in Waynesburg on March 19, 1946, she was a daughter of the late Alvin and Nora Aldine (Statler) Loring.

A 1964 graduate of Mapletown High School, she also graduated from Hannah Harrison School of Nursing in Washington, D.C., as an LPN. Alma had worked in a number of nursing facilities in the area, and retired from MonPointe Nursing Home in Morgantown.

Surviving are her two daughters, Debra Haines McCartney and husband Daniel of Sardis, Ohio, and Becky Jackson Muilenburg and husband Tim of Carmichaels; a son, Jason K. Jackson of Dilliner; five grandchildren, Zachary Haines, Madison and Gabby Muilenburg, and Lilly and Kenny Ray Jackson; a sister, Diana Bryan of Dilliner, and a brother, Howard Loring, of Point Marion.

Her husband of 54 years, Kenneth E. Jackson, passed away on April 14, 2021.

Friends will be received in the Richard R. Herod Funeral Home, Point Marion, on Monday from 5 – 8 PM, and again Tuesday from 10 until the 11:00 AM hour of service, with Pastor Kathy Griffith officiating. Interment follows in Wolf's Cemetery, Dilliner.

CDC recommendations for the current health crisis will be observed, and the family is requesting that all visitors wear masks in the funeral home.

“ Did not get to see Alma that often, but just loved the time we would visit or talk on phone. Alma always made me laugh, and think of the times way back when our family got together on weekends to play cards and games.
