“ Where to start, there is so many great memories that we shared. Anyone that knows Amber knows how great of a person she was. She was strong willed, independent and strong minded. She knew the right words to make a person feel better and moved forward. She was always there for me when I need someone the most. She lit up the room when she entered and made everyone smile. When god took her from all of us, it took a price of our hearts with her. Amber will forever be loved and missed dearly! Shes watching over her loved ones as a guardian angel. Remember this is not the end, we will met again... Rest easy my friend. Oxoxoxo
