“ Sorry to hear about the passing of our cousin Andy, and my condolences go out to all of his family and friends. I remember visiting his house when we were just kids, and they invited us to go swimming in their pool. Andy chased me around the car to get me to go swimming. We would often visit, and we'd sit and chat with his mom and dad. They always treated me so well, and I can remember his mom always teasing me and they'd offer me coffee too - haha... So many family members have passed on. No wonder they call it heaven, what a reunion we will have one day, where all the pain, suffering, and hurts are gone - and the tears have been wiped away. Many things we don't understand in this life, but we will understand it better by and by. Lawrence Corob (a.k.a. George)
