“ Because God brought Vern and Arlene together, the Tanner clan was truly blessed. Twice Arlene gave me a sweet memory. First when she spoke her renewed wedding vows to Vern on their 30th anniversary I was overwhelmed with the genuine love she expressed. She had the gift of putting her love into words. Then when my Dad, Francis Tanner, died Arlene stood beside his casket and saluted him and said "You were a good man Francis Tanner." That act of respect and kindness meant more to me than I can ever explain. Arlene taught me a wonderful lesson, that your words can fill someone's life with joy that lasts and lasts. Thank you God for the times I was privileged to share her company. May the joy that Arlene gave to you keep your heart full and happy always. All my love and prayers to you Vern.

“ Arlene was just a nice person, and when she came into Vern's life everything changed, I believe for both of them. You didn't have to be around them long to see how much love they had for each other. When you looked in her eyes you saw kindness and wisdom, and then peeking out from behind a little bit of mischief, given away by her laugh. The world was a better place for her being in it. Many prayers Vern. love you cuz,
