

Beatrice C. Jeffries

January 1, 1753 - March 22, 2014

Beatrice C. Jeffries, 74, of Morgantown, passed away Tuesday, March 18, 2014 at her home. Born Jan. 2, 1940 in Point Marion, Pa., she was a daughter of the late John and Susan (Massengill) Thompson. A member of the Morgantown Restoration Branch of Jesus Christ, she was employed at Morgantown Printing and Binding, and was known nationwide for her ability to hand bind rare and antique books. In her spare time, Bea enjoyed looking after her horses and traveling with her husband. Surviving are her two children, Harry L, Jr. and Louetta Blosser and companion Robert Massengill, all of Morgantown; four grandchildren, Noland Blosser, Jr., Leann Shriver and husband Greg, Jenna Lowther and husband Chris, and Nigel Jeffries; three great-grandchildren, Henry and Cadence Shriver and Aidan Lowther; and a brother, David Thompson and his wife S. Dorette, of McGraw, New York. Her husband, Harry Jeffries, Sr., passed away on April 28, 2012. Also deceased are two sisters, Ersula and Constance; and a brother, John Thompson. The family will receive friends in the Morgantown Restoration Branch of Jesus Christ Church, Bakers Ridge Road, Morgantown, on Saturday from noon until the 1:00 P.M. hour of a Memorial Service, with her nephew, Priest Jerry Shiflett officiating. Interment follows in Evergreen Memorial Park, Point Marion. Arrangements are in the care of the Richard R. Herod Funeral Home, Point Marion.
