He was the much beloved veterinarian for many pet owners throughout the Point Marion and Morgantown area, and owned and operated his own clinic in Point Marion for over 15 years. Charlie loved his dogs, and you rarely saw him without one by his side. In addition to his life's career, he also enjoyed hunting, downhill and cross-country skiing, riding motorcycles, and especially just having his friends around for a visit.

Also deceased, in addition to his parents, are four sisters, Doris Fargo, Betty Karbacka, Marilyn Swan, and Marjorie Ingram; his son-in-law, Bruce Ogilvie; and his close friends, Curt Powell, Gordy Shelts and Mitch Hartman.

Charlie's request was to have a celebration of his life. He wanted his family and friends to share their memories together. Please come and bring your memories on Saturday, July 20th to his home at 863 New Geneva Road, Point Marion, PA. Celebration service begins at 3:00 PM, with food and fellowship to follow.

In lieu of flowers, Charlie loved and supported the mission of the AIM Academy of the Canton City School District. Memorials may be made in his name to AIM Academy of Canton City Schools, 2701 Fairmount Blvd. NE, Canton, OH 44705
