

Connie Marie Bilonick

October 1, 1956 - June 18, 2018

Connie M. Bilonick, 61, of Madsville, W.Va., passed away unexpectedly Monday, June 18, 2018, at her home. Born October 1, 1956 in Sewickley, Pa., she was a daughter of the late Robert Kenneth and Betty J. (Mull) Condit.

A graduate of Western Pennsylvania School for the Deaf, Connie was a loving homemaker who enjoyed looking after the needs of her family. She was a member of the Fairmont Chapter of the Association for the Deaf.

Surviving is her son, Gregory Lyons Bilonick, II, of Morgantown; two brothers, Ken Condit of Lebanon, Tenn., and William Condit of Freehold, New Jersey; a sister, Betty Aquino, of Mesa, Arizona; and a number of friends in the Morgantown and Fairmont areas.

She was predeceased by her devoted husband, Gregory L. Bilonick, I, on October 8, 2010.

Family and friends will gather for a time of remembrance on Sunday, June 24th, from 1 – 4 P.M. at the Stepping Stones Recreational Center in Mylan Park, Morgantown. Private interment will be in Beverly Hills Memorial Cemetery, Westover at a later date. Arrangements are in the care of the Richard R. Herod Funeral Home, Point Marion, Pa.

“ Just heard the news of my sister-in-law Connie. I am so saddened to hear this news. She was such a good person and I know how much she missed the passing of Greg, her husband. He loved her so much as did she for him. My love to Greg from Aunt Vera.

*Love,
Vera Bilonick (Sam)*
