

Daisy Wolfe Malvito

June 12, 2010

Daisy Wolfe Malvito, 85, of Morgantown, West Virginia, died Tuesday, June 8, 2010, in the Point Manor Personal Care Home in Point Marion, Pa., where she had been a resident for the past year. Born Sept. 15, 1924 at Cheat Lake, West Virginia, she was a daughter of the late Samuel and Daisy Porter Wolfe. A 1944 graduate of Point Marion High School, she had recently been attending the Lake Lynn Community Chapel. Daisy retired from the Monongalia General Hospital, where she was a nurse's aide in the Ob-Gyn Department, and she was proud of the Service Award she received after 15 years of dedicated employment at the hospital. Surviving are her three sons, Greg, Pat and Peter Malvito, all of Morgantown; three daughters, Garnett McDonald and Paulette Braga, both of Bradenton, Fla., and Debbie Larrabee of San Diego, Calif.; 13 grandchildren, 17 great-grandchildren, 3 great-great-grandchildren; one sister, Beatrice Bixler of Lake Lynn; and a number of loving nieces and nephews and their families. Preceding her in death was her husband, Raymond Peter Malvito on Feb. 9, 1991; a grandson, Michael Malvito; five sisters, Donna Malvito, Elizabeth Hixenbaugh, Pearl Hixenbaugh, Bertha Cole and Gladys Kidwell; and four brothers, Floyd, Frank, George and Charles Wolfe. Friends will be received in the Richard R. Herod Funeral Home, Point Marion, on Friday from 2 – 4 and 7 – 9 p.m., and Saturday, June 12, 2010 until 11:00 a.m., the hour of service, with Rev. Reba Thurmond officiating.

“ To Daisy Family: Your mom, mother-in-law-,aunt and grandma, touch so many of our heart at the personal care home. She espeically touched my heart and she will be in my heart for a long time. She always was happy nothing bother her and you ask here if anything bother her she said no. I remember her sitting out in the hallway with Virginia every night. She always had a smile on her face. She went that way too, and a glow on her face. My prayer and thoughts will be with your family through this time.

“ Dear Greg, Pat, Peter, Garnett, Paulette and Debbie,

I was sad to learn of Aunt Daisy's passing. Since my mom (Aunt Gladys) passed away, I really don't see or talk to anyone. I did not know that Aunt Daisy was in the care facility in Point Marion or that she was in poor health. My sympathy is with all of you since I know first-hand how difficult it is to lose a mother.

God Bless All of You,

Kay

“ To Daisy's children,

Your Mom earned the affection and respect of all of us who worked with her at Mon General. Her kind, personal care made her patients smile and her dry wit brought many smiles to us staff members. She was an important part of a proud tradition of excellent care at Mon General. Please accept my condolences.
