

Daniel J. Fisher

January 1, 1990 - July 12, 2017

Daniel J. Fisher, 27, of Dilliner, died unexpectedly Wednesday, July 12, 2017, at his home. He was born in Morgantown, W.Va. on January 1, 1990.

He was a truck driver, working in construction and with PennDOT over the past years.

Surviving is his mother, Connie (Davies) Fisher and her partner Jim Holbert, with whom he resided; his father, Jerry A. Fisher, Sr. and his partner Nicole Gacek of Dilliner; a brother, Jerry A. Fisher, Jr. and his wife Leather, of Bobtown; a step-sister, Emily Holland-Fisher and a half-sister, Tenley Roetz Fisher; his paternal grandparents, Marvin and Jackie Fisher, of Dilliner; one niece, “his little lady”, Layna Fisher; and many friends. Daniel was certainly “one of a kind” and will be dearly missed by all who knew and loved him.

The family will receive friends in the Richard R. Herod Funeral Home, Point Marion, Pa., on Saturday, from 2 – 4 and 6 – 8 PM. Private interment services will be held in Fairview Cemetery at a later date.

“ I literally don't know what to say. My husband and I moved to Dilliner right down the road from Daniel and almost immediately after we moved on the mountain we met Daniel. He was and is an amazing person and friend. I literally miss him so much and even though we moved back to Mississippi we have kept in touch. Just a month ago I talked to him and told him we couldn't wait to drive back up there and when we did we would without a doubt make a stop at his momma's house to see him. You are truly missed and you truly made an impression on us. Sweet dreams and I'll see you again I'm Heaven one day I promise you that much.
