

Darrel D. Dice

October 15, 1949 - March 7, 2019

Darrel D. Dice, 69, of Greensboro, Pa., passed away Thursday, March 7, 2019, at his home with his family by his side, following a lengthy illness. Born in Uniontown on October 15, 1949, he was a son of the late Omer E. and Mary (Fisher) Dice.

A 1967 graduate of German Township High School, he honorably served in the U.S. Army, and was a veteran of the Vietnam Conflict. Darrel was a long distance tour bus driver, having driven for Edenfield Stages and Mildon Bus Lines, and later retired as a truck driver for Hoy Construction in Waynesburg. He was a former member of the Greensboro Fire Department.

Surviving is his loving wife of 38 years, Helen (Pratt) Dice; three children, Heather Moats and husband George of Greensboro, Ashly Dice and companion Chris Price of Point Marion, and Chad Dice and wife Stephanie of Carmichaels; six grandchildren, Cody, Makenzie, Alex, Christian, Garrett, and Reed; his life-long friend, Phillip Rhodes, and by a number of nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by two brothers, Wallace and George Dice; and by his best friend and brother-in-law, Delmar Pratt in 2017.

Friends will be received in the Richard R. Herod Funeral Home, Point Marion, on Monday from 2 – 4 and 7 – 9 PM, and Tuesday from 10 until 11:00 AM the hour of service, with Rev. David McElroy officiating. Military honors will be accorded following the funeral by the Point Marion Veterans Posts.

A special thank you is extended to Amedisys Hospice and their nurse and aides, for all the loving care given to Darrel during his illness.
