

David Andrew Burnette

January 1, 1753 - October 13, 2012

David A. Burnette, 72, of Brave, Pa., passed away quietly at his home on Wednesday, October 10, 2012 with his loving family at his side. Born Dec. 29, 1939 at Gans, Pa., he was a son of the late William and Helen Miller Burnette. A U.S. Army veteran of the Vietnam Conflict, he was a coal miner, retired from Consol Coal, and a member of the UMWA Local 1702. Dave was a faithful Christian man, and a dedicated member of the Calvary Baptist Church in Mannington. Surviving is his wife of nearly 45 years, Frances Jean (Masters) Burnette; two children and their spouses, John and Stephanie Burnette, and Stacey and Tadeusz Wajler, all of Fairview W.Va.; 13 grandchildren; and seven brothers, Lloyd Burnette of Warren, Ohio, Ed, Frank, Ted and Raymond Burnette, all of Morgantown, and Joe and Ralph Burnette of Point Marion. Deceased are four brothers, Paul, William, Herbert and Arthur Burnette, and one sister, Mary Jane Ridenour. The family will receive friends in the Richard R. Herod Funeral Home, Point Marion on Friday from 4 - 8 p.m., and Saturday in the Calvary Baptist Church, Mannington, from 10 until 11:00 A.M., the hour of service, with his Pastor, Lee Bowman officiating. Interment follows in Fletcher Cemetery, Cheat Lake. In lieu of flowers, the family requests memorials to the Calvary Baptist Church, Highway 250 North, Mannington, WV 26582
