

Della A. Justilio

November 16, 1932 - August 27, 2019

Della A. Justilio, 86, of Point Marion, Pa., passed away at her home on Tuesday, August 27, 2019. Born in Dunkard Township, Greene County, Pa., she was a daughter of the late Samuel and Lucy (Anderson) Slater.

A 1952 graduate of Point Marion High School, she had worked at the Berkowitz Shirt Factory in Uniontown, and later as a sterilizer in Central Processing for the West Virginia University Hospital.

She was preceded in death by her husband, James Justilio on January 20, 2019, and by a brother, Robert Slater.

Surviving are two sisters, June Arnold of Corapolis, Pa. and Pearl Salhany of Akron, Ohio; several nieces and nephews and their families; and several friends, including Robin Neighbors, who care for and looked after Della in the last months of her life.

Honoring her wishes, private graveside services were held, as she was laid to rest beside her husband in the Evergreen Memorial Park, Point Marion. Arrangements are in the care of the Richard R. Herod Funeral Home, Point Marion, Pa.

“ I worked with Della at the hospital. She took me under her wing and helped me when needed. She was a kind person and would do anything to help anyone. There were quit a few times we both got called into the office but we came being right. I will never forget her. Jim and Della came to our home many times. My thoughts and prayers to her family and friends. RIP. God has added a Angel to his home.
