“ Mom (Esther) was the youngest of the 10 children, but she seemed especially close to Dorothy. She talked about Dorothy often and loved their monthly phone 'visits'. She once said that Dorothy told her you treated her like a queen. What a great compliment to all of you for the quality of time you spent with your mom and for the appreciation she had for that gift. My heart is sad, as I often wish for more family time, that never seemed to transpire. I'm sorry we couldn't be there with you or for you. Karen (Krauskopf) Fisk
