“ Deepest sympathies to the Wood family on the passing of your mother. She was one of the stalwarts on McKinley Hill. I will always remember her kindness and willingness to pick me up along with Brenda from kindergarten each afternoon. How can I fail to recall that afternoon as we exited the kindergarten class when Brenda was hit by a car as she darted across Broadway Street? Dorothy kept me firmly in hand and displayed immense calm as she attended to Brenda who was not seriously injured. She was a fine lady and may she rest in peace.
