

Edna (Hager) Gleason

March 23, 2013

Edna (Hager) Gleason, 102, of Uniontown, passed away quietly Wednesday, March 13, 2013, at the LaFayette Manor in Uniontown. Born Sept. 13, 1910 in Farmington, Pa., she was a daughter of the late Albert "Bert" and Maude (Maust) Hager. A graduate of Uniontown High School, she was a faithful member of Third Presbyterian Church in Uniontown for over 50 years, where she was active with the Ladies Sewing Ministry. Deceased are her husband, Paul "Mack" Gleason; two daughters, Marilyn and Nancy; a brother, Charles Hager and a sister, Mildred Brashear. She is survived by her loving daughter and son-in-law, Beth and Jerry Fike of Uniontown; three grandchildren, Lisa Fike, Linda Messier and David Fike; and four great-grandchildren, Morgan, Alexandra, Laine and Joshua. Friends will be received in the Bethel Church of the Brethren, Elliottsville Road, Farmington, on Saturday, March 23rd, from 12:00 Noon until the hour of service at 2:00 PM., with Rev. Chris Enoch and Rev. Steven Davis officiating. Interment will follow in the Bethel Memorial Park. Arrangements are in the care of the Richard R. Herod Funeral Home, Point Marion, Pa. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests memorials may be offered to either the Third Presbyterian Church or Bethel Church of the Brethren.

“ *Beth and family:
I was saddened to hear of Mrs. Gleason's passing. She was a large part of my youth during my very close friendship with Nancy when we were growing up. I spent a lot of time at your house and your parents were two of the best people I knew. Please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers.*
