

Elizabeth V. Rhodes

January 23, 1940 - January 1, 2025

Elizabeth V. Rhodes, 84, of Smithfield, Pa., passed away Wednesday, January 1, 2025, at the home of her granddaughter, following a lengthy illness. Born in Georges Township on January 23, 1940, she was a daughter of the late William and Bessie (Phillips) Brown.

Elizabeth had been an employee of West Virginia University for 35 years, retiring as Supervisor of the Housekeeping Department.

In her spare time, she was an avid reader, and always looked forward to canning season, when she could put up home grown fruits and vegetables.

She was a loving mother and grandmother, who enjoyed looking after the needs of her family. Surviving are her two sons, Ricky Rhodes and Ronald Rhodes, both of Smithfield, eight grandchildren, including Crystal Williamson, who was her caregiver for the past six months; ten great-grandchildren; a brother, Harley Brown of Woodside, and two sisters, Edith Lancaster and Joyce Wiles, both of Uniontown.

Her husband, Omer Rhodes passed away on April 1, 1996. Also deceased is her son, Randall Rhodes; and brothers, Clarence, Robert, William and Jack Brown.

Honoring her wishes, there will be no public services. Arrangements are in the care of the Richard R. Herod Funeral Home, Point Marion. Condolences for her family may be posted at www.herod-rishel.com

“ So sorry for your loss. I don't live in PA but when I would come and visit Aunt Liz was always so nice to me always had a smile on her face. She reminded me of my Grandma Brown. I'm thankful I was able to come visit this past August and was able to see her at Crystals. I am praying Crystal's. Love Patty Brown Reed
