“ Our sympathy to you, Kenny and Marlene, and the entire family. You have been so good to your Mom for so many years and although it is very difficult to lose her, what a wonderful long life she has had. Now she is enjoying all the promises that she has lived for in Heaven. Best regards, Brenda and Buddy

“ I wish to extend my sympathy to the Frankenberry family. I was a first cousin of Merrill and knew Evelyn Johnson when she lived in Wiles Hill section of Morgantown, I used to deliver groceries to her home. I am now 95 and Merrill's mother was my mother's sister, Their maiden name was Annon and that's how I got my middle name.
Blessings to all.
