

Fidelis Nnaemeka Nwoko

July 21, 1992 - September 17, 2016

Fidelis Nnaemeka Nwoko, 24, of Morgantown, died unexpected Saturday, September 17, 2016. He was born in Eastern Nigeria, a son of Columba and Jacintha “J.C.” (Opara) Nwoko, of Morgantown.

In his early teens, he and his family moved to Morgantown, where he grew up surrounded by his family and many close friends. Fidel attended Morgantown High School, excelling at soccer and making many good friends. Following his graduation in 2009, he attended WVU on a full academic scholarship. In addition to his schooling, he gained the respect and admiration from his colleagues at Victory Holdings.

A smart, funny and unique individual, all who knew him will remember him for his contagious smile and uncanny ability to lighten any situation with mischief or laughter.

In addition to his parents, he is survived by five siblings, Julian, Anthony, Cynthia, Jessica and Patricia, all of Morgantown, and one set of grandparents. He was greatly loved and will be even more greatly missed by all who knew him.

A Funeral Mass will be held Saturday, October 1st at 10:00 AM in St. Mary’s R.C. Church, Star City, with Rev. Fr. John DiBacco as celebrant. Following the service, friends are welcome to join the family for viewing from 1 – 4:00 PM in the Richard R. Herod Funeral Home, 501 Morgantown St., Point Marion.

“ Columba, so sorry to hear about your loss. May he rest in peace, and your family find comfort. Though I've never met him, from his description, Fidelis sounds like he took after you. God bless! - (co-worker) Larry Corob
