Frank "Fritz" Daniel, 88, a lifelong resident of Dilliner, PA, died Sunday, August 6, 2017, in the Ruby Memorial Hospital, Morgantown, WV. Born Nov. 22, 1928 in the Poland Mines community of Dilliner, he was the son of the late Steve and Mary (Przybysz) Daniel.

A 1947 graduate of Mapletown High School, he served in the U.S. Army during the Korean Conflict. Fritz was a coal miner, retired after 44 years from Duquesne Light's Warwick Mine. He was a member of the V.F.W. Post 6303 in Greensboro, and also the U.M.W.A., Local 6310, where he recently received his pin for 70 years of membership in the Union.

Surviving is his wife of 62 years, Louise (Hearn) Daniel; two children, Patricia Daniel of Smithfield and Frank M. Daniel and wife Leah (Novak) Daniel of Greensboro; and a sister, Agnes Clark of Tallmadge, Ohio. Also surviving is his granddaughter, Crystal, with whom he had a very special and close bond. She was his "best buddy".

Deceased are brothers, Steve, Lawrence, and John in infancy; and sisters, Regina Fry, Mary Gilbert, Cecelia Shocket, Veronica Checkosky and Sophia Stoner.

Friends will be received in the Richard R. Louise and family. I was so sorry to hear of Fritz's passing. My brother Frank keeps me updated. The old Mable Hill just is not the same with all our friends passing. May he Rest In Peace. May you find comfort in his precious memories.
