

Frank Truntich, Jr.

December 23, 2013

Frank Truntich, Jr., 88, of McClellandtown, Pa., passed away Monday, December 23, 2013, in the Uniontown Hospital. Born Sept. 23, 1925 in Washington County, Pa., he was a son of the late Frank and Katarina (Siva) Truntich. Having lost his hearing at the age of 13, he attended the DePaul Institute in Pittsburgh, from which he graduated with an outstanding education received from the nuns who taught there. He later became a skilled mechanic and repairman on elevators and other motors. Surviving are his four sisters, Anna Dloniak of Cleveland, Ohio, Albina Olson, who oversaw his care for many years, and Margaret Truntich, both of Waynesburg, Donna O'Connell of Morgantown, W.Va.; one brother, Paul Truntich of Crofton, Maryland; and a number of nieces and nephews and their families. Deceased are sisters, Kathleen Kelly and Amelia Truntich, and a brother, George. Honoring his wishes, there were no public services. Arrangements are in the care of the Richard R. Herod Funeral Home, Point Marion, Pa.
