

Geneva Mary Orban

November 12, 1927 - January 5, 2021

Geneva M. Orban, 93, of Bobtown, Pa. passed away Tuesday, January 5, 2021, in Waynesburg, following a lengthy illness. Born Nov. 12, 1927 in Dilliner (Rosedale Village), she was a daughter of the late George H. and Anna (David) Brown.

Geneva enjoyed reading and sharing books with her daughter, playing cards every Friday evening with the neighborhood ladies, and especially going to bingo, anywhere they were offering it.

Surviving is her daughter and son-in-law, Rosemary and Michael D. Srbnovich, Sr. of Bobtown; three grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren, and three great-great-grandchildren.

Her husband, Thomas Orban, Jr., passed away in 2004. Also deceased is a sister, Lula Morris, two brothers, George and David Brown, and one great-grandchild.

Graveside services for her family will be held in the Wolf's Cemetery, Dilliner, under the direction of the Richard R. Herod Funeral Home, Point Marion, Philip S. Rishel, Owner and Director.
