

George Hegedis

April 27, 2010

George J. Hegedis, 74, of Garards Fort, Pa., passed away Saturday, April 24, 2010 in the Washington, Pa. Hospital. Born in Canyon, W.Va. on March 3, 1936, he was a son of the late George and Daisy Carr Hegedis. A U.S. Army veteran, he was a coal miner retired from Duquesne Light, and served as a Pennsylvania Forest Fire Warden. He was a member of the UMWA Local 6310, and the Carmichaels V.F.W. He is survived by his daughter, Joyce Hegedis of Lake Lynn, Pa.; two brothers, Harry and Steve Hegedis, both of Greensboro; two sisters, Rosalie Sell of Greensboro, and Delores Glover of Cleveland, Tennessee; and his dear friend and companion for the past ten years, Patricia Tharp. Friends will be received in the Richard R. Herod Funeral Home, Point Marion, on Monday from 2 - 4 and 7 - 9 P.M., and Tuesday until 11:00 a.m., the hour of service, with Rev. Kenneth Haines officiating. Interment follows in Monongahela Hill Cemetery, Greensboro.