

Gloria Jean Buchanan

October 17, 1954 - April 23, 2020

Gloria Jean Buchanan, 65, of Pursglove, W.Va., passed away quietly Thursday, April 23, 2020, in the Morgantown Health and Rehab Center, following a lengthy illness. Born in Washington, Pa. on October 17, 1954, she was a daughter of the late Norma Jean (McMasters) Stanley and Leonard Jackson Stanley, Sr.

She was a loving homemaker who enjoyed looking after the needs of her family.

Surviving are her children, Eugene Stanley of Smithfield, Pa., Patricia Stallman of Three Springs, Pa., Patsy Varano of Pursglove, W.Va., with whom she made her home, and James Varano of Fairchance, Pa.; four grandchildren, Boston, Branson and Montana Stallman and Darian Varano; two brothers, Dwayne Christopher Stanley of Fairbanks, Pa. and Leonard Stanley, Jr. of Smithfield; and three sisters, Debbie Judy of Fairbanks and Nora Jane Stanley, both of Fairbanks, and Carol Stanley of Uniontown, Pa.

She was predeceased by her husband, Stephen Buchanan in 2018.

Honoring her wishes, there will be no public services. Arrangements are in the care of the Richard R. Herod Funeral Home, Point Marion.

Memorials, in lieu of flowers, may be offered to the family at 501 Morgantown St., Point Marion. Notes of condolences for the family can be left at www.herald-rishel.com

“ My Aunt Gloria was a wonderful person, she is actually 1 of my favorite ppl in my family. I have always been so much taller than her that I have always called her Aunt Shortie lol. I have 2 sons Jax & Corey & they had such a bond with her & loved her so much & they also called her Aunt Shortie & she always giggled when they did cuz they are 14 & 12 but they were so much taller & bigger than her. My fav memory of Auntie is when she came to stay & babysit me & my 2 brother when my parents went away for a few days for their anniversary 1 summer when I was 9 or 10, and Auntie taught me to cook pasta & we sat out on our huge front porch for hours just me & her reading, listening to music, & talking. I asked her so many questions that evening I had to drive her nuts but she sat there with a smile & answered every single question I asked her. I love you Aunt Shortie & you will be so very very missed.
Love your niece,
Brandi

Gloria was a special lady with great talent crochet and crafts. She rented from us and often would have me one over for prayer. She loved the Lord spent most of her time watching religious Programs. I'm sure she is at peace in heaven having the time of her new life with Jesus. †
