“ Gloria and I worked together in homecare and hospice for over twenty-five years. We went through her pregnancy, loss of both our family members, political elections, child rearing, and many other issues that crossed our lives. We struggled through life's journey together and I will always cherish those years.. May God comfort you Gary and Michael as you mourn the loss of your life partner and mother. I will keep you in my prayers. May her memory be eternal and forever!!! Norma Rohozen

“ I love Gloria. I always will. A few years ago we sat in the back of a funeral service. I said something. She said, "WHO"? I said, "not who". She said it again. We dissolved into hysterical laughter. That is how we rolled.

“Gloria and I worked together for 18 years. We shared a lot, when you work with someone you spend a lot of time with them and get to know them well. She loved her family and was a great mother to Michael. she also loved cats. I can remember when she had this cat come to her home and she took her in and got her fixed and everything. then the owner wanted the cat back. Gloria gave the owner the cat but It broke her heart. I was so sad to see her like that. So another friend and I went to pet store were Gloria fell in love with this white cat. she would always were red lipstick and we got her that cat and brought him to her. I told her she would not have to give this one back. she cried with joy and it made me feel so good to see her happy. needless to say, that cat had red lipstick all over him were she kept kissing his face and crying. she loved him so much. I will miss her and will always think about what she taught my son to say in Italian and he still remembers that . she will be sadly missed.

“Gloria was my first friend from childhood. We visited each other and just lived 2 houses away from each other. We discussed so many things that were important to two young girls. I was so envious that she had the first real date but she told me all the details 🥰. She was my Maid of Honor 46 years ago and will always have a special place in my heart. Rest now my friend and suffer no more, you are home with Jesus and your family.

“ I went to school with Gloria from Kindergarten until we graduated in 1970. I remember her playing the accordion for our class when we were in 5th grade, Mrs. Conn’s class . She was always a good friend. We sang in the High School Choir and also a select choir group called “The Madrigals. I taught her son Michael in first grade at Friendship Hill, where she was active in the PTA. Most importantly she was my Mother’s neighbor for many years and she and her family were good to my Mom. I’m very saddened that she’s gone but I’m sure she’s singing with the Angels! My deepest sympathy goes out to Gary, Michael, and all the family.❤️❤️❤️
