

Hannavee (Eggers) Sholtis

September 23, 1946 - May 3, 2026

Hannavee Sylvia Sholtis, 79, of Maiden, North Carolina, and formerly of Dilliner, Pa, passed away Sunday, May 3, 2026, at her home, following a lengthy illness. Born in Dilliner on Sept.23, 1946, she was a daughter of the late Grover and Mildred (Sicklesmith) Eggers.

A graduate of Mapletown High School, Hannavee was a member of the Mount Pleasant United Methodist Church in Dilliner. She retired from working in the furniture industry after moving to North Carolina. In her spare time, she enjoyed reading her Bible, camping and fishing with her husband, and returning to Pennsylvania to visit with family and friends. She was a devoted Christian woman with strong family values, and was loved and cherished by her family and friends.

Surviving is her husband of 62 years John Sholtis; two children and their spouses, Kim Straley (Norman) of Maiden, and Jeff Sholtis (Stacy) of Waynesburg; two grandsons, Nathan Straley (Mallory) and Jordan Sholtis (Morgan); one great-grandson, Brycen Sholtis; her sister, Elaine Williamson (George) of Dilliner; and several nieces and nephews.

In addition to her parents, also deceased are two brothers, Duane Eggers and Allen Eggers.

A celebration of her life is being planned for this Sunday on Mother's Day.
