“ Jackie, I am so so sorry words can describe how sorry I am for this loss. Your relationship with her reminded me of my relationship with my mom. Heather was just a force and such a light she didn't know a stranger. I love you both so much. - Jessica Cutlip ❤️

“ To Jackie, it's been said before, only because it's true, there are no words to describe the loss of someone one so close, so loved, and so dear. I know the love you have for Heather is unconditional, unbreakable, and forever. Although our loved ones cannot be seen, they cannot be heard.. they are with us everyday tangled in our hearts.

“ Dear Jackie, Knowing you all the years I have, you and I have never been at a loss for words but tonight I find myself searching for the words that would bring you comfort. Seems there are no words that would heal your heart right now. Watching Heather grow from a child in Sunday School to a beautiful young woman has been a pleasure. I pray your happiest memories carry you through, along with family and friends that surround you in love and hugs. May Gods peace surround you when you need it most and the joy of knowing she’s home give you as much comfort as possible. All our love. Judy and Larry

“ Dear Jackie and Bob, My heart aches for you both. Your daughter was a beautiful girl who will be missed by everyone. I cannot say enough words that would heal your broken hearts. Just know that I've known you, Jackie, for so many years, and you know that I am always here for you. We are here for one another. We've share memories; we know each other's hearts; and I will continue to be there for both you and Bob. I love you so much.
