

James K. Brozik

January 1, 1922 - May 15, 2012

James K. Brozik, Sr., 89, of Dilliner, (Bald Hill), Pa, passed away Saturday, May 12, 2012 at his home. Born Oct. 22, 1922 in New Salem, Pa., he was the son of the late Thomas and Helen (Brinsko) Brozik. A U.S. Army veteran of World War II, he was a coal miner, retired after 42 years from J & L Steel's Shannopin Mine in Bobtown. He was a member of the U.M.W.A. Local 6159, the Mount Morris American Legion, the Bobtown V.F.W., and the Bobtown Senior Citizens, where he delivered Meals on Wheels. Jim was a faithful member of the Bald Hill United Methodist Church, and was Sunday School Superintendent and Teacher for many years. In his retirement, he was very active with the area veterans' posts and was honored to serve as Chaplain for the Military Funeral Detail for many of his fellow veterans. He is survived by his wife of 66 years, Angie (Huddleston) Brozik; a son, James K. Brozik Jr. and his wife Patricia of Boardman, Ohio; a granddaughter, Kayleigh Brozik of Anchorage, Alaska; a sister, Mrs. Richard (Helen) Gabler of Bobtown; and many friends. Deceased is a son, Kevin J. Brozik in 2001; and four brothers, Tom, Jr., Gene, Frank, and Max Brozik. Friends will be received in the Richard R. Herod Funeral Home, Point Marion, on Monday from 3- 6 P.M., and Tuesday, from 10 - 11:00 a.m., the hour of service, with Rev. Gale Cobb officiating. Interment follows in Wolf's Cemetery Dilliner, with military rites accorded at the graveside by the Mount Morris American Legion.
