

James Foster Collins

September 17, 1938 - October 27, 2014

James F. Collins, 76, of Bobtown, Pa., passed away Monday, October 27, 2014 in the Ruby Memorial Hospital. Born in Waynesburg, Pa. on Sept. 17, 1938, he was a son of the late Roger Lane and Mary Sue (Sadler) Collins.

A Methodist by faith, he was a 1957 graduate of Mapletown High School. He also graduated from West Virginia Career College, and then worked for a while at Pittsburgh Mercantile in Bobtown. Jim retired as the Assistant Warehouse Manager after working for 30 years at the West Virginia University Book Store.

He enjoyed music and played the piano, had an interest in model cars and aircraft, and was always quick to help his friends and elderly neighbors in any way he could.

Surviving family members include his cousins, Paul Martin of Bobtown, Joel Martin of Los Angeles, Debra Fodge and husband Michael of Wickliffe, Ohio, and W. Clark Draper of Low Hill, Pa.

Friends will be received in the Richard R. Herod Funeral Home, Point Marion, Pa., Philip S. Rishel, owner and director, on Monday from 10 AM until Noon, when funeral services will begin with Rev. Beverly Roscoe officiating. Interment follows in Evergreen Memorial Park, Point Marion.

Memorials may be offered to the Point Marion Public Library, 399 Ontario Avenue, Point Marion, PA 15474.
