

James R. Phillips

January 1, 1948 - December 10, 2012

James R. Phillips, 64, of Smithfield, Pa., died Wednesday, December 5, 2012, in Point Manor Personal Care Home, Point Marion, Pa. Born Nov. 6, 1948 in Uniontown, Pa., he was a son of Edna (Miller) Phillips of Point Marion, and the late Charles Phillips. A U.S. Army veteran of the Vietnam Conflict, he honorably served until wounded in action, and was awarded the Purple Heart Medal. Jim was a member of the AMVETS Post 103 Hopwood, the DAV, and a life member of the VFW Post 747 in Point Marion. He enjoyed working on his farm and caring for his livestock, helping his brother on strip mines running heavy equipment, and in his spare time, racing 4-wheelers cross country. In addition to his mother, he is survived by his loving daughter, Jamie Clemmer and husband Jason of Point Marion; a grandson, Justin; one brother, Charles "Chuck" Phillips and wife Dixie of Smithfield; and by his caregiver and former wife, Karen Phillips. Friends will be received in the Richard R. Herod Funeral Home, Point Marion, on Saturday, 2 – 5 PM, Sunday, 5- 8 PM, and Monday, December 10, 2012 until 11:00 AM, the hour of service, with Rev. Scott Teets officiating. Interment, with military honors accorded by the Point Marion Veterans Posts, follows in Evergreen Memorial Park, Point Marion. Memorials: Amedisys Hospice, 20 Highland Park Dr., Uniontown, PA 15401

Tribute Wall

JH

“ Jamie Clemmer and family - James Phillips,

Our prayers are with you right now. May God be with you today and everyday. I am thinking of you and hope that all goes well today.
Jonienne

Jonienne Hazel - December 10, 2012 at 11:02 AM