

Jane L. (Ball) Clemmer

August 6, 1919 - September 27, 2011

Jane L. (Ball) Clemmer, 92, a life-long resident of Blosser Hill, Lake Lynn, Pa., passed away quietly Saturday morning, September 24, 2011, at her home with her family at her side. Born in Salamanca, New York on August 6, 1919, she was a daughter of the late Newton J. and Golda Blosser Ball. A 1936 graduate of Point Marion High School, she was a member of the Fallen Timbers Community Chapel. Jane was elected to serve as the Tax Collector for Springhill Township for over twenty years, and retired from the Uniontown Hospital, where she had worked as a unit clerk. Following retirement, she was active with the Smithfield Senior Citizens, and enjoyed their planned activities and bus trips. A loving mother, grandmother and sister, she will be dearly missed by two sons and their wives, Noel and Judy Clemmer and Virgil and Joyce Clemmer, all of Lake Lynn; a daughter-in-law, Linda Clemmer of Evansville, Indiana; 14 grandchildren, 26 great-grandchildren, and six great-great-grandchildren; and one brother, Noel Ball of Point Marion. Deceased are her husband, Spencer Clemmer in 1957; a son, Warren Clemmer; and a brother Lowry Ball. Friends will be received in the Richard R. Herod Funeral Home, Point Marion, on Monday from 2 – 4 and 6 – 8 p.m., and Tuesday, Spetmber 27, 2011, from 10 - 11:00 a.m. the hour of service, with Rev. Scott Teets officiating. Interment follows in Springhill Union Cemetery, Lake Lynn, Pa. Memorials may be offered to the Fallen Timbers Community Chapel, P.O. Box 353, Point Marion, PA 15474. The family would like to extend their sincerest thanks to Amedisys Hospice and the caregivers who lovingly helped with Jane during her illness.
