

Janice L. (Gallatin) Long

May 30, 1938 - June 21, 2014

Janice L. (Gallatin) Long, 76, of Orange Springs, Florida, and a native of Greene County, Pa., stepped into glory Thursday, June 12, 2014, with her loving family at her side, following a brief illness. Born May 30, 1938 in Dunkard Township, she was the daughter of the late W. Wilson and Helen (Johnson) Gallatin. A 1956 graduate of Mapletown High School, she was a longtime member of the Ft. McCoy Church of God in Ft. McCoy, Florida. Janice was a loving wife and mother, who faithfully served her Lord and Savior, and enjoyed taking care of her family. Surviving are her devoted husband of 55 years, Daniel Long, Sr.; three beloved children, Brenda Long of Bradenton, Fla., Daniel Long, Jr. and wife Lori and Benjamin Long and wife Ashley, all of Ocala, Fla.; and a number of cousins and friends in the Greene County area. Friends will be received in the Richard R. Herod Funeral Home, Point Marion, Pa., on Friday, from 6 - 9 P.M., and Saturday from 9 until the 11 AM hour of service, with her sister-in-law, Rev. Mary Louise Howard officiating. Interment follows in Fairview Cemetery, Taylortown, Pa.

“ Janice was truly one of Gods gifts. A loving wife, mother, daughter and our cousin. You could see her tenderness in everything around her and hear it in her voice. Her calls to my mom and her cards are something that we hold dear. Her time here is done, and although she will be missed, we take heart in knowing we will see her again.
