

Rev. Jay R. Polowsky

October 25, 1956 - September 30, 2020

Rev. Jay R. Polowsky, 63, of Bobtown, Pa., passed into glory on Wednesday, September 30, 2020, at his home, following a lengthy illness. Born in Pittsburgh, Pa. on Oct. 25, 1956, he was a son of the late Samuel and Lois (Newell) Polowsky.

A minister of the Lord Jesus Christ, Rev. Polowsky served in the Western Pennsylvania United Methodist conference for 35 years, until his retirement in 2019. He pastored a number of churches in various charges throughout the Methodist conference, including Oil City, Ford City, Brookville, Point Marion, Smithfield, and finally in the Brownsville area.

Surviving is his daughter, Katie Polowsky, and her friend and his caregiver, Christopher Kerns, of Bobtown.

Rev. Jay was predeceased by his wife, Darlene Sue Polowsky on July 27, 2012, and by a brother, Jeff Polowsky.

Friends are invited to join his family for a Memorial Service honoring his life and ministry on Friday, Oct. 9th, at 3:00 P.M. in the South Brownsville United Methodist Church, with his friend and colleague, Pastor Frank Philpott officiating. Arrangements are in the care of the Richard R. Herod Funeral Home, Point Marion, Pa.

“ Dear Katie,
Our thoughts and prayers are with you at this time in the loss of your father. His ministry on the Bellview Charge brought many blessings and worship traditions that I will always remember. Your parents and you shared your Christian love with all of us and his ministry will always be remembered. Hold on to the precious memories.

Love and prayers, Bill & Diane Kiehl from Stanton UMC

“ I am so sorry to hear of Jay's death, I was friend of his and Darlene both. I lost touch with them through the years but thought of them quite often with a smile when i look at my ceramics, as Jay had taught me to paint them. May God's blessing be with you, Katie and give you peace.
