

Jeremy Lee Hughes

September 14, 1979 - July 29, 2020

Jeremy Lee Hughes, 40, of Westover, W.Va., died unexpectedly Wednesday, July 29, 2020, at his home. Born Sept. 14, 1979 in Charleston, W.Va., he was a son of Donna Fay (McCoy) Jordan of South Carolina, and the late Patrick Wayne Hughes.

Jeremy was a contractor for the U.S. Army, and later worked as an insulator at area power plants. He loved being outdoors, camping and fishing, and especially being able to spend time with his children.

In addition to his mother, he is survived by his fiancé, Cassandra Todd; two children, Thomas Edward Hughes and Isabella Fay Hughes, both at home; Kaylee Riley, who he thought of as a daughter; his best friend, Kelly Kuhn; and his in-laws, Mike and Barbara Todd of Bobtown, Pa., and Bonnie (Keener) and William Wellman of Ohio.

Friends are invited to join his family in the Richard R. Herod Funeral Home, 501 Morgantown St., Point Marion, on Thursday, August 6th, at 5:00 PM, when a Memorial Service will be held, with Pastor Gale Cobb officiating.

“ Oh Jeremy it's been 4 months since you left but it feels like only yesterday. You were more than a friend but you were my confidant and my little brother. See you again at the gate. Love you always bro . Lenny “ Jeremy was always there as a friend...he would give anyone the shirt off his back...his heart was so big. I know he will keep a close watch over everyone he loved and cared about.
