

Jerry Scango

April 28, 1956 - September 14, 2021

Jerald Benjamin “Jerry” Scango, 65, formerly of Point Marion, Pa., passed away unexpectedly at his home in Morgantown on Tuesday, September 14, 2021. Born in Morgantown on April 28, 1956, he was a son of the late Jules and Lillian (Stillwagon) Scango.

A 1974 graduate of Albert Gallatin High School, he also attended the Fayette Campus of Penn State University. Jerry was a life-long employee in various departments of West Virginia University.

He enjoyed all sports, and was especially good at golf, which he loved and played whenever possible. He had a flair for writing, liked all types of music, and enjoyed making others laugh, especially when doing his impersonations of famous people. Jerry was strong in his Christian faith, and we know God now has him in his loving care.

Left to cherish his memory is his sister, Joyce Scango Dills, of Point Marion; three nieces and three nephews; three great-nieces and five great-nephews; cousins, Clinton and Karen Murray, and a number of longtime friends.

He was predeceased by his brother, Alan Scango, in 2018.

Due to the current pandemic, there will be no indoor services. Friends are invited to join his family for graveside services on Sunday, September 26, 2021, at 2:00 PM in the Evergreen Memorial Park, Point Marion, where space will allow for personal distancing. Pastor Kathy Griffith will officiate. Arrangements are in the care of the Richard R. Herod Funeral Home, Point Marion, Philip S. Rishel, Director.

“ Playing slow motion football on the small patch of grass in front of Jerrys house and laughing at him making fun of Max Mason trying to sing college football fight songs that he did not know. Listening to him make up a story and go on for a hour about something stupid like picking your nose in a elevator!!!! So sad that a good friend is gone. I know he is with the Lord now. He was never afraid to talk about his faith in God. He also had a uncanny knack to make us laugh for hours. So sorry that I had not had opportunity to see him recently.

“ I loved talking to Jerry the many years we worked at Ruby together. He was always kind. Many times we had pretty deep conversations. I always wanted him to finish the book he said he was writing. I hope my friend finds peace.

“ I met Jerry when he was in 7th grade, he was a year behind me in school. But I was his next door neighbor for three years. I have pictures of Jerry, the Corcorans, and some other kids playing ball right in the middle of the street. They were having so much fun. Jerry and I talked every time we ran into each other which wasn't often, but it was always like old times. He was a good friend and a truly a good person. He will be missed by everyone. RIP Jerry, know that you were loved much!
