“ Very sorry to see Joyce has passed. One of the "town folk" that made running to the post office a pleasant errand and growing up in Point Marion in the 60s a good place. Genealogy travels periodically took me back through and I always included a stop at the library. Joyce graduated with one of my older brothers and she always had a nice story to relay about him which I appreciated. So sorry for the family's and the town's loss.
