

Judith Stephany DuCoeur

August 28, 1942 - April 10, 2017

Judith Stephany DuCoeur, 74, passed away on April 10, 2017, in Kennesaw, Georgia. Born Aug. 28, 1942, she was the daughter of the late Dolores (DuChateau) Andrews and Hale B. Andrews. Judy lived for a few years as a child in Point Marion, Pennsylvania. Her family then moved to Dundalk, Maryland in the 1950's. She attended Dundalk High School where she met and married Tom Radcliffe who was also from Dundalk. Tom served in the Navy and was stationed in Bermuda where they lived for several years.

Judy and Tom had two children, Jeffrey and Tambria. In 1968, the family moved outside the Atlanta area to Cobb County where they raised their children. In 1995, Judy moved to Cedartown, Georgia and lived on a small farm. She and her husband were recognized as Farmers of the Year in 2007.

Surviving are her two children, Jeffrey Radcliffe and Tambria Radcliffe Stinson, both also residing in the Atlanta area, as well as six grandchildren, and her loving cousins, Richard and Marie DuChateau and their son, John DuChateau.

Friends are invited to join the family for Graveside Services at 1:00 P.M. on Saturday, June 10, 2017, in the Evergreen Memorial Park, Point Marion. Local arrangements are in the care of the Richard R. Herod Funeral Home, Point Marion. Donations in lieu of flowers may be sent to the Alzheimer's

Association.
