

Kathleen Williams

February 12, 1927 - November 22, 2019

Mary Kathleen Williams, 92, of Dilliner, Pa., passed quietly on Friday, November 22, 2019, at her home. Born Feb. 12, 1927 in Maidsville, W.Va., she was a daughter of the late Harry and Blanche (Rumer) Simpson.

A 1945 graduate of University High School, she was a devout Christian woman, and a faithful member of the Fort Martin Methodist Church for many years, and attended the First Baptist Church of Dunkard in Taylortown for many more.

Kathleen was known throughout the area for her beautiful quilts, and she donated many handmade blankets and throws to the VFW, VA outlets, nursing homes and individuals alike. She loved to bake, and was famous for her peanut butter fudge, cookies and pepperoni rolls. She is fondly remembered as the “cookie queen”.

Surviving is her husband of 73 years, Kenneth R. Williams; three sons and their wives, Kenny R. “Doc” and Sue Williams of Point Marion, James R. and Melinda Williams of Dilliner, and Steven P. and Joanie Williams of Mount Jackson, VA; grandchildren, Chad, Casey, Alison Williams-Klein, Ashley Williams-Davis, Travis, Eric, Scott Smith and Stu Smith; nine great-grandchildren and one great-great grandchild; a niece, Susan Simpson Biser, and nephews, Pete, James, and Michael Simpson.

Deceased are two daughters, Brenda Lee and Kelly Rae; and a brother, Harrison "Junior" Simpson.

Friends will be received in the Richard R. Herod Funeral Home, Point Marion, on Monday from 5 - 8 PM., and Tuesday in the First Baptist Church of Dunkard in Taylortown, Pa., from 10 until the 11:00 AM hour of service, with Rev. Dan Hennessey officiating. Interment will follow in Fort Martin Cemetery.

“ Arguing religion, playing cards, discussing the state of current culture; whether explaining the nuances of a recipe, plying me with homemade bread and cookies, or laughing at how a bunch of ignorant guys could mistake a pot of spaghetti sauce for chili, you were a force to be reckoned with. A wonderful lady, a life well-lived. My Thanksgiving weekends will never be the same. Godspeed, Kathleen Williams.

Ken and family, please accept our sincere condolences. You are in our thoughts and prayers.
