“ We had so many great memories, ldk where to even start! I cant even begin to describe to the world what an amazing impact you have had on my life, and our daughters! I'm beyond blessed to have had you as my mother-in-law for almost 10yrs.. But you were so much more to me than just that, you were my best friend Momma Dalton! ❤️ I'm like one of thee luckiest girls in thee entire world to have had that with you!! Most women don't get to have a special bond with their mother-in-law like you and I had.. Most dont even talk to them or cant get along or whatever the case may be, we have definitely had our disagreements / arguments but at the end of the day we still loved each other. We would still kick somebody else's ass if they messed with one of us lol one of those I can beat your ass but nobody else can! Type deals. There are still a few things a wish i would have said to you, but I'm not going to dwell on that, though instead cherish ALL the great times and laughs we shared. I just want you to know, we'll be ok.. Only bc YOU taught us how to be! You have done so much for me, not just financially but in so many other ways as well. I honestly don't think you or anyone else will ever understand how much you truly meant to me Kell. You were literally the strongest woman I have ever met, not just physically, but mentally and emotionally too! You were just thee best in every way possible!! Everyone and anyone that were blessed enough to meet and get to know you, absolutely loved you! You'll be forever in so many hearts, missed dearly, but remembered so very vibrantly!! Lexi misses you so much! Everyone does, but she asks me every morning if Grammys still an angel like uncle Johnny & when I confirm she just says "Aww, but I miss her, I want her back!!" 😔💔 It literally crushes me every time, but I'm trying to be strong for her and Jr.. Don't worry, he's guna make you proud momma, we're all guna make you proud!! 💖 So now, you spread those big beautiful wings, gorgeous & fly high! We love you, we miss you so, but you'll always be with us, & we'll always be with you bc when you left you took a piece of each of our hearts with you! I already know you'll be watching over Lexi, so no need to ask. One thing is for sure, my baby now has one hell of a guardian angel looking out for her! 🙏❤️🙏
