

Lloyd H. Smith Jr.

January 22, 1968 - May 6, 2021

Lloyd H. Smith, Jr., 53, also known as “Smitty” or “Cleveland”, died unexpectedly Thursday, May 6, 2021, in the Uniontown Hospital. Born Jan. 22, 1968 in Cleveland, Ohio, he was a son of Rebecca (Cleaver) Smith of Masontown, and the late Lloyd H. Smith, Sr.

He had formerly worked as a tow motor operator for Kyowa in Waynesburg, and later for a mining belt company in Carmichaels. A social member of the American Legion and the V.F.W., both in Point Marion, Smitty remained a loyal fan of the Cleveland Browns to his last day.

In addition to his loving mother, he is survived by his devoted girlfriend and companion, Kelly (Skidmore) Presock; a son, Lloyd H. Smith, III of Point Marion; two sisters, Marsha Oravets of Masontown and Kim Sackett and husband Kevin of Smithfield; a number of nieces and nephews and their families; many friends; and his faithful canine buddy, “Brute”.

His family will receive friends in the Richard R. Herod Funeral Home, Point Marion, Saturday, May 8th, from 5 – 8 PM, and again on Monday, May 10th, from 10 until the 11:00 AM hour of service, with Rev. French Jenkins officiating. Interment follows in Evergreen Memorial Park, Point Marion, Pa.
