

Lois (Baker) Sanetrik

May 23, 1937 - April 6, 2021

Lois Jean (Baker) Sanetrik, 83, of Stewartstown, died Tuesday, April 6, 2021, in Mt. Pleasant, S.C., following a lengthy illness. Born in Gans, Pa. on May 23, 1937, she was a daughter of the late Omar C. and Emma Alice (Lyons) Baker.

She was a proud 1955 graduate of Point Marion High School and enjoyed staying in contact with the classmates who were so special to her. She loved telling stories about playing her saxophone for the marching band. For many years, Lois was involved with the All-Class Reunion at the former High School. She had formerly worked at the Gallatin Bank in Point Marion, and later as a labeler at the Forks-of-Cheat Winery in Stewartstown.

Roman Catholic by faith, her devout unshakable faith in God kept her strong through the hard times of life, thankful during the joyous times and in sincere appreciation of all He created.

Lois had a kindness and genteelness that touched everyone she knew. She always had a smile that came from her heart. Her family was her pride and joy. The only regret was that her husband Johnny died before they could enjoy grandparenting together.

Surviving are her children, John Kevin (Janet) Sanetrik, Cynthia (Roger) Barber, Christina (Randy) Dell, Brian Sanetrik (Robin Barnhart) and Catherine

(Robert) Clarke; grandchildren, Ryan (Tabatha) Barber, Brandon (Deborah) Barber, Travis (Rachel) Barber, Luke (Kristina) Barber, Nicole (Neil) O'Hara, Michael Saffron, Rachel (Jorge) Lujan, Jonathan Sanetrik, Valerie Sanetrik, Lauren Sanetrik, Dallas Clarke, Caitlin Clarke; step-grandchildren Donald Murray and Tracy Murray Bourne; and great grandchildren; Hayes, Carter and Beau O'Hara, Alex, Easton and Elizabeth Barber, Trey, Virginia, Charlotte and Tamsin Barber, McKenzie Walsh, Jorge and Julian Lujan, She is also survived by her beloved sister, Virginia Springer of Elizabeth, Pa. and many nieces and nephews.

“ Dear Cousins Kevin, Cindy, Chris, Brian and Cathy,
I was very heartbroken to hear the news, but at the same time, inside, joyful that Aunt Lois is now with her Savior and her husband. Aunt Lois was always nice. I don't remember her ever having a cross word to any of us kids that were romping around when we came to visit.
Always sweet, nice and kind. Always smiling and taking time with all of us. A truly christian lady. That is my memory of dearest Aunt Lois.

“ Lois was a classmate at Point Marion Middle and High School. In addition she was a friend who always had time to organize our reunions. i often talked to her when she was walking on Penn Street down to Victor Milling to catch her ride home with her father. It has been a few years since I have seen or talked with Lois but she will be sincerely missed and has gone to a much better place. In her memory, I plan to make a donation to the Point Marion Public Library. George R. (Dick) Jenkins, PMHS Class of 1955.
