

Lora Jean Franks

August 22, 1959 - February 12, 2017

Lora Jean Franks, 57, of Bobtown, Pa., passed away Sunday, February 12, 2017, at the Ruby Memorial Hospital in Morgantown, following an extended illness. Born in Waynesburg on Aug. 22, 1959, she was the beloved daughter of James and Alma (Stout) Franks of Bobtown.

She attended the Bobtown United Methodist Church, and was a 1978 graduate of Mapletown High School. She was trained and worked as a kitchen designer in Arizona, and, after returning back to Greene County, Lora worked at Vance's Auto in Mount Morris.

Surviving, in addition to her parents, are two sons, and their spouses, Timothy and Nikki Pratt of Calloway, W.Va., and Nick and Heather Pratt of Carmichaels; grandchildren, Zach, Tyler, Timmy, Jr., Alex, Lora, Nikki, Attia, and Robert; a sister, Lisa Garrison and her husband, David of Bobtown; one niece, Holli Garrison of Salem, W.Va., and several cousins and other relatives.

She was predeceased by a niece, Heidi Garrison.

Friends will be received in the Bobtown United Methodist Church on Friday, February 17th, from Noon until 1:00 PM, the hour of a Memorial Service, with Rev. Ed Hanley officiating. Arrangements are in the care of the Richard R. Herod Funeral Home, Point Marion.
