“ Mrs. Hixenbaugh was a very dear neighbor of mine. I loved her dearly. I remember her catching thanking (can't remember if it was chestnuts or apples) from her yard was I was really little. Any way she just told me to ask next time. She came to see me when I was in a bad wreck when I was 18. And when each of my 2 children were born. I will always remember my walks to a few houses away to spend time with her. A very Godly Christian woman. Like a second mother to me Carolyn Rice Sine.
