

Mary E. Adams

February 14, 1935 - December 30, 2015

Mary E. Adams, 80, a longtime resident of Bobtown, Pa., passed away Wednesday, December 30, 2015, in the Rolling Meadows Nursing Home in Waynesburg. Born Feb. 14, 1935 in Rock Forge, W.Va., she was the daughter of the late Ernest W. and Ada Belle (Reed) Ghuste.

She was a member of the Bobtown United Methodist Church, and had formerly worked for Sterling Faucet in Morgantown.

A loving wife and mother, she enjoyed looking after the needs of her family, and going dancing with her beloved husband, John Adams, who passed away on Sept. 15, 2015.

Surviving are her three daughters and their husbands, Gwenda Darnise Hanks of Eufala, Alabama, Carol and Charlie Jeffries, and Mary Ann and Jim Michenko, all of Waynesburg; a step daughter, JoAnn Faucheux of New Orleans; two grandchildren, Tyler Jeffries and Kimberly Sherouse; a step-grandson, Jason Scott; two great-granddaughters, Jessica Brumley and Katelyn Sherouse; two step-great-granddaughters, Haven and Sophia Scott; and a sister, Edna Comba of Carmichaels, Pa.

Honoring her wishes, there will be no public services. Private graveside services will be held at St. Mary's Byzantine Cemetery, New Salem, at a later date. Arrangements are in the care of the Richard R. Herod Funeral Home, Point Marion.
