“ I am so saddened to hear of Mrs E's passing. She was a truly wonderful person. I'll fondly remember sitting on the front porch swing with her catching up on all the local news when I came home on vacations and more recently visiting when I was able to.

“ On the day after Christmas in 1963, Vic's, Kevin and I darn near wore out the Beatles new release “ I want to hold your hand “ on Vic's snazzy new 45 player. Not to be outdone was Mary Lou's kids Christmas breakfast of pancakes and a Coca-Cola.

Over the years I have chuckled about “ You kids want a Coca-Cola ? “ as our wake up call but looking back, it all fit beautifully like riding the hills in a little VW, stopping at a yard sale for some junk and being known as you'uns.

Mary Lou was a very cool Aunt.
