“ Mary was a down-to-earth lady with a great sense of humor. Whenever we visited Mary, she was always in a happy mood and usually had something homemade for us to eat. She and Tony made us feel special at their home and always had some interesting tidbit to share. She once served us her delicious zucchini boats which Joan now makes from time to time. Joan and I took Mary and Tony gambling a few times and we always had a blast with them. Mary, as well as Tony, will be greatly missed by us and I'm sure by her family and their community.
