

Mary Jane Romesburg

February 25, 1945 - April 11, 2024

Mary Jane Romesburg, 79, a longtime resident of Point Marion, Pa., passed on to be with her Lord on Thursday, April 11, 2024 at the Oak Creek Terrace Nursing Home, in Dayton, where she had been a resident during her illness. Born in Gans, Pa. on Feb. 25, 1945, she was a daughter of the late Thurston Harvey Romesburg and Anna Floranette (Fowler) Romesburg.

A graduate of Albert Gallatin High School, she worked at McCrory's in Morgantown, W.Va., and retired from the Houze Glass Corp. in Point Marion. In her spare time, Mary Jane like to read, do ceramics, crochet and listen to gospel hymns.

In addition to her parents, also deceased are her brothers-in-law, Edward Colebank and Jack Robbins, and a nephew, Alan Colebank.

Surviving are her beloved sisters, Alice Robbins of Mantua, Ohio, Betty Colebank of Masontown, Pa., and Linda Connelly of Dayton, Ohio, with whom she made her home for the past 13 years; several nieces and nephews and their families; and her devoted furry companion, Cuddles, that she loved very much.

Friends will be received in the Richard R. Herod Funeral Home, Point Marion, on Friday from 5 – 8 PM, and again Saturday from 10 until the 11:00 AM hour of service, with her nephew, Drew Colebank officiating. Interment follows in the Evergreen Memorial Park, Point Marion.

“ Childhood memories of a great lady. I remember Mary Jane and her contagious laugh. She was a joy to be around. Was honored to have her ride to work with me for a time. Great Christian and always looked at the bright side of life in spite of how bad things were at the time. Heaven has gained in the family's loss. -- Sherry Hellen Lewis
