

Marylou Fox

March 18, 1958 - October 30, 2012

Marylou Fox, 54, of Greensboro, Pa., passed away at her home Saturday morning, October 27, 2012 with her family at her bedside. Born in Euclid, Ohio on March 18, 1958, she was a daughter of Mary (Fellows) Shingleton, of Albuquerque, New Mexico, and the late Robert Shingleton. A member of the Covered Bridge Association, she enjoyed gardening and canning, and occasionally visiting the casinos. Marylou was a devoted wife and mother, and she looked after her family as well as taking care of others. Surviving, in addition to her mother, are her husband of 35 years, Gordon G. "Gene" Fox, Jr., who she married Oct. 29, 1977; three children and their spouses, Robert and Debbie Shingleton, and Regina Fox, all of Greensboro, and Laura and Clayton Dulaney of Waynesburg; four grandchildren; Maddison, Jackson, and Gracelynn Dulaney, and Lindsey Dean; a sister, Patricia Walker, and two brothers and their wives, Robert and Connie Shingleton and Steven and Gloria Shingleton, all of New Mexico. Deceased is one brother, Emory, a brother-in-law, Keith Walker, and a dear friend, George Ellis, whom she cared for in her home for several years. Friends will be received in the Richard R. Herod Funeral Home, Point Marion, Pa., on Monday from 2-4 and 6 -8 p.m., and Tuesday until 11:00 A.M. the hour of service, with Pastor Gary Whipkey officiating. Interment follows in Garards Fort Cemetery.

“ Gene, Regina, Laura and Robbie,
You have our deepest sympathy at this sad time in your lives. I am sure that Marylou is smiling down on you all. She always had a way of making a fun situation out of everything she did. I know we always had a lot of fun and laughs together. Take comfort in knowing she is no longer suffering and although gone from this world, she will remain with her family and friends forever.

“ Marylou was a special cousin. When Gene and Marylou came to visit, you were in for a lot of fun and good laughs. From the family reunion to the Pickens Maple Syrup festival, she was always there to help. She made work fun and we will miss her a great deal.
