

Melvin Eugene Stell

January 1, 1946 - September 5, 2012

Melvin Eugene Stell, 65, of Washington, Pa., a native of Point Marion, Pa., died Sunday, September 2, 2012 at the UPMC-Montefiore Hospital in Pittsburgh. Born Dec. 27, 1946 in Uniontown, Pa., he was a son of the late Melvin A. and Hazel (May) Stell. He was raised a Catholic at St. Hubert's Church in Point Marion, and was a 1965 graduate of Albert Gallatin High School. Melvin honorably served in the U.S. Navy during the Vietnam Conflict until his brother, James Stell, also in the service, was killed in action. Following his retirement from General Motor's Lordstown Assembly Plant in Ohio, he enjoyed buying and selling at local flea markets. Surviving is his sister, Loretta Farrier and her husband, Larry, of Eastlake, Ohio; two nieces and their husbands, Vikki and Jeffrey Gamier and Kris and Kevin Crews; and one great-nephew, Brandon Crews. The family will receive friends in the Richard R. Herod Funeral Home, Point Marion on Wednesday, September 5, 2012, from 11 – 1. A Blessing Service, officiated by Rev. Fr. Andrew Kawecki, will begin at 1:00 P.M., with interment following in the Little Arlington Section of Evergreen Memorial Park. Military rites will be accorded at the graveside by the Point Marion Veterans Posts.

“ Loretta & family,
Please accept my deepest sympathy for the loss of your brother, Melvin. I spoke to him a few years ago. He was a very special man. I've known him since junior high. I often think about Jimmy Melvin, and your family. They were always very kind to me.My thoughts and prayers are with your family. If I can do anything for you, don't hesitate to ask.
May GOD be with you and your family.
Suzie Gould & (my brother) Willie Gould
