

Nicholas James Smith

December 13, 2014 - January 18, 2026

Nicholas James Smith, 11, of Pittsburgh, Pa., died unexpectedly Sunday evening, January 18, 2026, at the UPMC Children's Hospital in Pittsburgh. Born in Morgantown, West Virginia on December 13, 2014, he was a son of Daniel Smith, and Christina (Wilson) Smith.

Nicholas was a fourth grade student with the CCA Online School. His favorite teacher was Mrs. Kazembe, and his favorite color was green. Nicholas loved all things dinosaur, especially the trex. His favorite movie is "A Night at the Museum" where the dinosaurs on exhibit come to life. He was a loving little boy who brought so much joy to his family, and will be forever missed.

In addition to his loving parents, he is survived by two sisters, Christina and Mia-bella Smith; his grandmothers, Wilma Wilson of Uniontown, Pa., and Debra Smith of Kentucky; a number of aunts, nieces and cousins; and David and Lana McClain of Point Marion, who loved him like he was their own grandson.

His grandfathers, Reed Smith and John Lewis preceded him in death.

A Memorial Service for his family will be held in the Richard R. Herod Funeral Home, Point Marion, on Tuesday, February 3rd, at 1:00 PM, with Fr. Steve officiating.

“ Bud. I miss you so much. Its been 3 months and it hurts like it was yesterday. I think of u so much. Were all lost with out you. Mimi misses you so much. Nicole just wants u back. Mimi got your ashes in a pretty necklace. She wont take you off. She misses you to the moon and back. I never thought that for such a little man you would leave such a big hole and make such an impact on all of us the way this has. We will never stop loving you Bud.

“ My baby boy. I miss you everyday. So much so it takes my breath away. The agony of surviving you has never been more painful. This isn't how it was supposed to be. I was supposed to go first. Everyday is like torture knowing that I can't touch or feel you again my only baby boy. May you enjoy that big beautiful dig up in the sky. Mommy loves you.
